

1066 COUNTRY

Terms & Conditions

General Terms and Conditions (all members)

- All businesses wishing to become members of the 1066 Country Marketing Partnership should have a legitimate interest in tourism
- Members must supply at least one image for their page. Where subjects are identifiable, members must have all necessary consents to meet GDPR requirements
- Relevant members will contribute (where appropriate) to 1066 Country Marketing statistics gathering
- Members must provide a URL link to visit1066country.com from their own website
- Members are encouraged to add the 1066 Country of Origin Sussex 'marque' to their promotional materials, including website home page. This can be downloaded from the branding materials on the website
- 1066 Country Marketing reserves the right to remove any member from visit1066country.com if substantiated significant complaints are received
- 1066 Country Marketing's payment terms and conditions are 28 days upon issue of invoice. Members who fail to settle accounts by the designated date will cease to be part of the programme
- 1066 Country Marketing will not give refunds on membership subscriptions
- 1066 Country Marketing reserves the right to terminate membership or refuse applications from organisations who do not meet the terms & conditions set out in this document

Accommodation providers should also:

- Sign the 1066 Country Accommodation Charter Standard if not accredited under one of the national quality assessment schemes operated by Visit Britain or the AA, or the 1066 Country Approved Visitor Accommodation Scheme, accredited by Visit England
- Ensure that pricing information is up to date on visit1066country.com
- Have their own terms and conditions clearly set out and available for customers booking online

1066 Country Marketing has the right to change these terms and conditions from time to time, written confirmation will be given to the Membership.